Inspired by the shape of a snowflake, the Dufferin Clark Library offers a bright and airy central atrium with four large solarium-style bay windows. This Vaughan Public Libraries branch is conveniently located inside the Dufferin Clark Community Centre.

Before the Dufferin Clark branch opened on September 18, 1988, the area was served by a very busy one room library in the Patricia Kemp Community Centre that offered paperback fiction only. Now customers visit Dufferin Clark library to borrow materials of all varieties, in multiple languages. They also make use of the public access computers, sunny children's area, and quiet study spaces.
