

All are welcome in Vaughan Public Libraries.

To maintain the health and wellbeing of VPL staff customers and visitors and to ensure that all customers can enjoy VPL privileges the following Code of Conduct has been adopted.

Face masks or suitable face coverings must be worn in all public areas.

Physical distancing measures, safety protocols, and York Region Public Health directives must be followed.

Food and drink are limited to personal water bottles.

Conversations should be considerate of others in tone and volume.

VPL property and materials must be treated with respect.

Members of the public may be required to make available for inspection all bags and carrying cases when leaving the building.

The care and safety of your child(ren) is your responsibility. Child(ren) over the age of 11 may be left unattended.

Registered service animals as defined in the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act are welcome in the Library.

Customers are responsible for all personal items while in the library and should not leave them unattended.

Appropriate behaviour is required while visiting VPL.

Please respect the privacy of others by refraining from photographing or filming without permission.
