

READING CHALLENGES

at Vaughan Public Libraries

Vaughan Public Libraries is challenging you to read outside your comfort zone, read widely, and have fun!

Follow along with our monthly Reading Challenge and let us know what you're reading on our blog or on social media. To help you discover some great reads we'll be blogging every month and creating lists of books on Bibliocommons.

For more information, visit <https://www.vaughanpl.info/blog/reading-challenge-2022/>.

January: Read a book about joy or that makes you laugh Your read: _____	July: Read a historical fiction novel that isn't set during World War Two Your read: _____
February: Read a book by a Black Canadian author Your read: _____	August: Read a book set at the beach or in a warm/tropical setting Your read: _____
March: Read a book that has won or been nominated for Canada Reads Your read: _____	September: Read a book by an author you've never read before Your read: _____
April: Read a book set in a library, bookstore, or other literary setting Your read: _____	October: Read a book that scares you Your read: _____
May: Read a book that was made into a movie or TV series Your read: _____	November: Read a book by an LGBTQIA2+ author Your read: _____
June: Read a biography or book of essays by an Indigenous author Your read: _____	December: Read a book published in 2022 Your read: _____