

We're challenging you to read outside of your comfort zone, read widely, and have fun!

Follow along with our monthly Reading Challenge and let us know what you're reading on our blog or on social media. To help you discover some great reads each month we'll be creating themed lists of titles for each monthly challenge.

For more information, visit www.vaughanpl.info/blog/reading-challenge-2023/

January: A book written by multiple authors _____	July: A book set in school _____
February: A book about a unique family _____	August: A book that takes place during the summer _____
March: A book with a map _____	September: A doorstopper _____
April: A book that features food _____	October: A book that takes place over a single day _____
May: A book about a disaster _____	November: A book of environmental fiction _____
June: A fiction book about a real person _____	December: A book published this year _____