The Reimagined Maple Library is One Week Old!

VAUGHAN, ONTARIO – Vaughan Public Libraries is excited to announce that the reimagined Maple Library has reopened its doors and is once again serving customers of all ages! Updated to meet the needs of the local community, the new library space is welcoming, brighter, and modernized. It offers many features, including a refreshed children's area and a new reading garden - all of which will ignite your passion and excitement for reading, our in-person programming and our extensive collections.

The library renovations include:

- a fully accessible facility
- modern design and finishes
- increased open space
- free wi-fi
- a redesigned marketplace area
- a bright and vibrant storytime area
- updated private reading and study spaces
- a new outdoor reading garden
- comfortable lounge seating

“I am excited to announce that the reimagined Maple Library is now open to customers. This fully redesigned space provides a warm, welcoming and vibrant hub for the local community and symbolizes our commitment to delivering a world-class experience for you. Enjoy a storytime with your family, relax in the new reading garden or get down to work in the dedicated study room – Maple has something for everyone and we are looking forward to seeing you soon!”

- Rose Savage, Chair, Vaughan Public Library Board

“It is our pleasure to announce that the reimagined Maple Library is officially open to the public. This vibrant, exciting and modern library provides a welcoming space for all Maple residents. Maple Library's new look is symbolic of our commitment to adapt and change while offering an incredible array of free programs, services and resources that will be sure to Enrich, Inspire and Transform.”

- Margie Singleton, CEO, Vaughan Public Libraries
