Plaque Unveiling for the Mackenzie Health Vaughan Library

VAUGHAN, ONTARIO – On August 16th, 2021, Vaughan Public Libraries (VPL) and Mackenzie Health welcomed a new VPL location at the Cortellucci Vaughan Hospital, the Mackenzie Health Vaughan Library. This new branch is a 4,000 square foot library that serves the local community, patients, staff and caregivers. Customers may also enjoy a book, study space, and storytime and benefit from our health literacy resources and trained staff.

Due to Public Health restrictions an opening celebration was postponed, but VPL is pleased to announce the official plaque unveiling of the Mackenzie Health Vaughan Library will be held on June 24th, 2022. "I am honoured to be part of this extraordinary event," said Vaughan Public Library Board Chair Rose Savage. "We've patiently waited to officially celebrate this incredible new library and the value it brings to the local community, staff, patients and caregivers. Customers will experience exceptional resources, outstanding service and innovative staff in a welcoming, state-of-the art branch."

"Vaughan Public Libraries is proud to partner with Mackenzie Health and unveil the Mackenzie Health Vaughan Library plaque," said VPL's CEO Margie Singleton. "We believe that the Mackenzie Health Library is an essential part of the Cortellucci Vaughan Hospital and its community. This library is a reminder of our commitment to building new branches that stimulate innovation, creativity, and culture in response to the community's evolving needs "
