POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Use of Buildings

- Vaughan Public Libraries allows for the use of buildings by individuals, groups, organizations, and businesses whose conduct supports the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and the Ontario Human Rights Code.
- Permission to use Vaughan Public Libraries' facilities does not imply any endorsement of the aims, policies or activities of any group or individual.
- Library facilities are available to all members of the public provided that they conduct themselves in a reasonable manner, as stated and posted in the Code of Conduct.
- Selling and soliciting by the public shall not be permitted in the libraries, on library property, or at Library sponsored events without the permission of the Board. Application for permission to sell or solicit on library premises must be made in writing to the Board.
- If granted permission by the Board, the participating organization shall provide staffing for all hours of operation, all necessary equipment, supplies and monetary change and set-up in consultation with the Library Manager.

Meeting Rooms

- Meeting rooms may be reserved by the community for the purpose of promoting the informational, cultural, learning and leisure needs of the community in the form of meetings, seminars and workshops, including fee-generating events. See List of Charges.
- VPL will not rent rooms to political parties at the municipal, provincial or federal levels for the purpose of campaigning.

Conditions of Use

- Vaughan Public Libraries is an active partner in the Green Directions Vaughan initiative. Please consider the following:
 - Refrain from handing out paper unless absolutely necessary
 - Use refillable water bottles instead of plastic water bottles
 - Use recycled materials when serving food
 - Use appropriate recycling containers
 - Turn off all lights and equipment used at the end of the meeting
- The rooms may not be used as banquet facilities.
- The Board reserves the right to refuse or cancel any reservation.
- Library-sponsored programs shall have priority in the use of meeting rooms.
- Vaughan Public Libraries do not provide storage facilities. Property of any kind brought on to the premises by the applicant, guests or attendees shall be promptly removed from the premises after use of the premises.
- Library staff must have access to facilities at all times and may attend free of charge any event, meeting or course held on library premises for the purpose of auditing or reviewing compliance with Vaughan Public Libraries' policies.
- Organizations must use their own names when advertising meetings held in library facilities, making it clear that the Library is not the sponsor of the event.
- Organizations or individuals who use library facilities and/or equipment are responsible for any damages incurred by such use. They will be required to indemnify the Vaughan Public Library Board against the costs of any and all claims which may arise out of, or by reason of, granting the use of those facilities.
- Charges must be paid at the time of booking. There will be no refunds of charges for cancellations of less than seven (7) days notice. Bookings will be tentative until receipt of payment.
- Persons using a meeting room are responsible for the set-up and arrangement of the room, except for the IT packages. Vaughan Public Libraries will provide tables and chairs for use in the meeting rooms. The facilities shall be returned to the same condition as found. A charge will be levied for cleanup required by Library staff. See List of Charges.
- Use of the kitchenettes must be requested at the time of application for use of the meeting rooms. This use is restricted to the service of non-alcoholic beverages and light refreshments. No dishes or utensils are provided.
- All groups booking meeting rooms for meetings which extend beyond regular library hours may be required to cover the cost of Library staff supervision. Meeting room facilities may not be available on days that the library is closed to the public.
- When meetings terminate after library hours, the organization's representative shall ensure that lights are turned off and doors are closed securely.
- Vaughan residents who wish to use library meeting space for fee-generating events will be charged the Vaughan commercial use rate. See List of Charges.
- Alcoholic beverages may not be dispensed or consumed on library property
