1. When the football team is getting a little rough with videographer Brendan, there are several witnesses. Is it wrong for people to just stand there and be bystanders to bullying?
2. Even though Aaron and Bear hate doing their community service at the Senior's Home, why do you think they seem to feel jealous and insulted when the residents start showing a preference for Chase?
3. What does it say about his relationship with his Dad when Chase says that the only conversations they seem to have are about football?
4. When Shoshana first tried to interview Mr. Solway, his unhappiness and misery reminds her of her brother, Joel. What do Joel and Mr. Solway have in common?
5. Chase starts to suspect that Aaron and Bear stole Mr. Solway's medal. What should Chase do about his suspicions?
6. Shoshana's and Joel's mother says what Chase did to Joel is unforgiveable. Do you agree?
7. Joel was miserable at Melton, but now that he is back home, he is very anxious. He says, "be careful what you wish for". What does this expression mean?
