1. If you had to choose one word to describe this book, what would it be? Why?
2. How has Winn-Dixie impacted Opal's relationship with her father?
3. The Littmus Lozenge tastes slightly different to different people. Why? Would you like to try a Littmus Lozenge?
4. Opal's mother doesn't actually appear as an active character in the story. Is she still an important part of the story?
5. What do you think is the most important incident that happens in this book?
6. Gloria Dump says "There ain't no way you can hold onto something that wants to go, you understand? You can only love what you got while you got it". Do you agree with this?
7. Opal says that everything that happened that summer was "because of Winn-Dixie". Is that really true? Or were there other reasons?
